Highlights

- Sri Krishna & Kwan Imm Temple
- Arab Street
- Kampong Glam
- Little India
- Chinatown
- Sampling of Indian Pancake
- Tea Appreciation

This tour takes you on an exploration of the 3 main different cultures of our vibrant multicultural society.

The tour will begin with a visit to Waterloo Street where Sri Krishna and Kwan Imm temples can be found.

Kampong Glam is the next stop where you will understand more about the Malay culture. Visit Arab Street and view the magnificent Sultan Mosque. Stroll along the area to see the different shops selling traditional Arab-Muslim food and merchandise.

Then we move on to Little India, the heartland of the Indian communities. The many colours and scents will welcome you to the place. Walk through the streets to experience the pungent smell of spices and incense.

Our experience would end as we make our way to taste the famous 'Roti Prata', Singapore's favorite Indian pancake.

Last stop will be the Chinatown area where sharing the art of Chinese tea appreciation and souvenirs can be found.
